

(Warren, Ohio) – On Sunday, Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) will join Governor Ted Strickland, Dr. Laura Meeks of Eastern Gateway Community College, and Dr. Roy Church of Lorain County Community College to discuss the proposed downtown Warren location of the Eastern Gateway Community College. The Congressman and Governor will be available for comment. WHO: Eastern Gateway Community College
HAT: Eastern Gateway Community College

WHEN: Sunday, February 28 at 2:15 pm

WHERE: Congressman Ryan's District Office

197 West Market Street, Warren

□

Following the EGCC meeting, Congressman Ryan and Governor Strickland will meet with local labor leaders to discuss current issues and projects in the 17th

District. The Congressman and Governor will be available for comment.

WHO: Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) and Governor Ted Strickland

WHAT: Meet and Greet with Local Labor Leaders

WHEN: Sunday, February 28 at 3:30 pm

WHERE: The Sunrise Inn

East Market Street, Warren

On Monday, Congressman Ryan will present a check for $100,000 to the United Way for their "Success by Six" program. Success by Six will encourage parents to sign their children up for school at an early age in order to provide testing and remediation (if necessary) in order to improve success rates. The program will hire at least 15 full- and part-time teachers and support personnel. The Congressman will be available for comment after the event. For more information, visit the Success by Six program at the Youngstown-Mahoning County United Way website.

WHO: Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) WHAT: Success by Six WHEN: Monday, March 1 at 10:00 am

WHERE: South Range School

Columbiana County

On Monday evening, the Congressman will attend an ACTION public forum to discuss developments regarding the Eastern Gateway Community College. The Congressman will be available for comment after the event. For more information, visit ACTION online.

WHO: Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) WHAT: ACTION Public Forum re: WH
Eastern Gateway Community College
EN: Monday, March 1 at 7:00 pm

WHERE: Liberty High School

Trumbull County

#